

Session 2 – Daryl Bay

Build: Our Foundation for Worship (Luke 7:36-40)

Sometimes blokes can learn from the most unlikely of examples. In this text, we learn some masculine lessons from a surprising source: a sinful women's encounter with Jesus. The more deeply you have tasted Jesus' grace, the more deeply you will worship Him.

I. An Invitation to a Party

First century dinner parties:

- were held to honour visiting Rabbis
- took place while reclining round a table
- involved both invited and uninvited guests

II. The Scandal

“When our faith is polite, comfortable, marketable, and harmless, then nobody gets messy, uninhibited, or embarrassed. But of course, few get convicted, converted, ignited, or reborn either.” William Willimon.

III. The Point

“Forgiven much, love much.”

To grow in worship, grow in your appreciation of the gospel of Jesus
