THE CHURCH FAMILY ARE FACING ANOTHER CRISIS

The devastating earthquakes in Turkey have deeply impacted persecuted Christians in Syria. Tens of thousands are dead, and the church is reeling.

Join with the local church in praying for all affected – whether injured, traumatised or grieving.

“We’re still in the shock phase,” says Ibrahim Najjar, an Open Doors partner in Aleppo, Syria. “No homes, no shops, no food. People are really suffering.”

Pray with us:

That survivors would be quickly rescued, and for all emergency and medical staff.

For the church and Open Doors partners to be beacons of hope, and equipped to help their communities.

Comfort for all who mourn.

AMT is setting up a fund to collect gifts and donations which we will pass on to these contacts on the ground. There will be no administrative deduction on these gifts as we seek to demonstrate the Lord’s love tangibly.
